

Bikers

- Bikers roots go far in about 60-70s years it was then beginning to be formed in this direction. Components of this class, as a rule, men of 30 years old who can not imagine life without these things: bike, beer and rock music. All these three elements are inextricably linked. In Russia, the subculture of bikers has not yet been properly developed, such as in Europe or the U.S., but in every major city in our country has some biker clubs. First - it is a club of interest, if the fashion for bikers and was, it was over. First of all these people as the soul, are not of their existence without iron friend on two wheels under his feet.
