

The city hall building – a magnificent house in Russian empire style promising to become one of the best ornaments of ancient city.

