

Court personnel

Crown court

Juries

- Consist of 12 people aged 18-70
- Drawn from electoral registers in local community
- Certain occupations are exempt but the number of these have been reduced in recent years
- The jury decides on the guilt of the accused based on evidence presented and following guidance from the

