

Intensity of Distribution (2)

Selective: less widely distributed complex and/or expensive products that require assistance - Cars, computers, appliances, etc.

Push strategy: promote to distribution partners to push goods to consumer

Exclusive: extreme case of selectivity

Manufacturers have the most control
May become monopolistic

